Students To Pick Up Yearbooks June 4, 5

La Torre will be distributed next Monday and Tuesday from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. in the Outer Quad, according to Dr. Leonard Hippchen, La Torre adviser.

A series of tables arranged in alphabetical order will be set up near the archway between the Inner and Outer Quads.

Only students who can present a paid-in-full $6 stub will receive the yearbook.

Students who have applied the $4 down payment, but have not as yet paid the remaining $2 toward the $6 total cost of La Torre, must do so in the Student Activities Office.

La Torre staff members cannot accept the $2 final payment at the distribution area, according to Dr. Hippchen.

The Student Activities Office will not distribute the yearbook.

As a special service to persons who have not yet applied any money toward the book, the staff will establish a special table where they can pay for and receive La Torre, all in the same operation, Dr. Hippchen said.

After Tuesday the yearbook will be available for sale in the Student Activities Office.

Summer Sessions To Offer Workshop On Marching Bands

A marching band clinic, designed to meet and solve practical problems of the school marching band, will be offered by San Jose State College Summer Sessions this year.

Radio, Video Guild To Present Awards At Annual Program

The SJS Radio and Television Guild will present its annual Awards Night Program in the Studio Theater of the Speech and Drama Building tonight at 8:15 o'clock.

The Robert I. Guy award will be presented to the student who, in the judgment of the Guild has shown the most excellence in radio and television activity this year.

The Guild also will present awards to the best actors, actresses, technicians and writers of the year. People engaged in public service work and those who have given their time and talents to the service of the organization, the department, the college and the community also will be honored.

As an added attraction, the Guild will present a live radio show entitled "The Witch Came C.O.D." The play was written by Jim Aherm, last year's Robert I. Guy award winner. It will be broadcast direct from the Studio Theater over Radio KEEN at 9:30 p.m.

Dr. Heath Advocates Higher Standards

Dr. James P. Heath, professor of zoology, is the latest person to endorse the recent proposal by the Faculty Council concerning the raising of grading and admission standards as a means of curtailing the rapid influx of students to SJS.

"The most suitable time for the raising of grading standards is during a period of expanding enrollments. The elimination of students of low scholastic ability will tend to retain classes at present sizes until the standards have been raised," he said.

Dr. Heath went on to explain that he feels students from high school or junior colleges should not be arbitrarily cut off from the opportunity of going to college, but if they make a poor showing they should be quickly eliminated.

"The raising of enrollment standards has been flatly refused by admission officials in spite of strong recommendations by members of the biology staff and administration," he said.

"They tell us 'But no student should be refused the right to an education,' but the definition of student is ours to determine."

"Past policy has been to consider that upper division students have been tested in a primary competition in the basic courses. Grading has tended to become lenient. Today, any student with a year of C grades in any subject is eligible for unqualified transfer into this school," Dr. Heath said.

The professor stated that he feels many high school students are selecting this route on purpose in order to avoid certain requirements and to enter with minimal effort.

Such students should be graded strictly on the basis of ability without permitting upper division courses to carry any premium. The elimination of an excessive amount of students has many compensations, according to Dr. Heath. Not only would it weed out the scholastically misfit, but it would ease crowded classroom and lab conditions.

Methodist Group
The spring session of SJS Wesley Foundation, a student Methodist fellowship, will meet for the last time this Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Richard Ingraham, director, announced today.

The program will be in charge of the Rev. Ingraham and will be designed so students may drop in or leave at any time, he stated.

'Man of Ashes' To Complete Run

"Man of Ashes," by Andre Obey, the last major Speech and Drama production of the year, will be presented for the last time tonight, tomorrow and Saturday nights at 8:15 o'clock in the College Theater.

The play, which is a French production, was translated by Dr. James H. Clancy, professor of drama. Dr. Clancy also is directing "Man of Ashes."

Leading roles in this Don Juan story are played by Ivan Paulsen, Fred Engelberg, Lee Devin, Wayne Ward, Sandra Teboe, Sylvia Cirone and Patricia Murray.

The settings were designed by Harrison McCreath and the 16th century costumes by Bernice Prisk. Rollin Buckman handles the technical direction.

Tickets for the play are on sale in the College Theater Box Office from 1 to 5 p.m. daily and before the performances. Tickets are 50 cents to students and $1 general admission.

AFROTC Cadets To Attend Camp

Fifteen San Jose State Air Force ROTC cadets will attend training camps this summer, the Office of Information Services announced today.

The camps are being held at various Air Force bases to introduce the cadets to the functions and activities of the Air Force.

Cadets George W. Brown, Bernard J. Clark, Darrel W. Clement, Anthony M. Cook, Edward J. Cummings Jr., Robert D. Engel, William D. Reese, Kenneth R. Steele and Jerome J. Williams Jr. will attend camp at Hamilton AFB from June 17 to July 14.

Cadet Albert G. Stubbe Jr. will attend camp at McClellan AFB during the same period.

Attending camp at Hamilton AFB from July 15 to August 18, will be cadets Bruce E. Bassett, Jon C. Anderson, Noel D. Gravelle, Richard A. Strader and Donald J. Bickford.

Captain W. F. Byess and Lieutenant C. W. Rasley, both of the SJS AFROTC Detachment will attend summer training camp at McClellan AFB Technical Sergeant G. D. McDaniel will be at March AFB.

Foudy To Address 'Largest Ever' Class

Summer Session Class To Study Economic System

Designed to acquaint secondary level educators of Northern California with the aims, objectives and problems of the American economic system, a summer workshop will be held at San Jose State College from July 29 through August 17. It will be sponsored by the Northern California Council on Economic Education and by the Institute of Industrial Relations at the college.

Staff economists for the economic education program will include two SJS faculty members, H. Paul Ecker, assistant professor of business, who will serve as workshop director, and Edward P. Shaw, associate professor of business and director of the college's Institute of Industrial Relations. Professor Ecker is associate director of the institute.

Heading the list of economic education specialists, who will participate in the workshop, is Dr. Edward G. Nourse, former chairman of President Truman's Council of Economic Advisors. He is now working with the Joint Council of Economic Education, a non-profit educational organization designed to coordinate, service, encourage and improve economic education.

Staff economists will also include three Pomona College faculty members, Floyd A. Bond, professor of economics and chairman of the Department of Economics, and Gerhard N. Rostvold and Lorne D. Cook, both assistant professors of economics.

Curriculum consultants will include Mrs. Lois G. McMahon, curriculum coordinator, Richmond Public Schools; Edward P. Stanley, coordinator and director of adult education, Campbell Union High School District; Garford G. Gordon, assistant director of research, California Teachers' Association; and Oron Keeslar, coordinator of secondary education, Santa Clara County schools.

Workshop registration has been limited to 50 teachers and administrators, including representatives of school systems, regions and teaching fields selected by the district or county superintendent.

Three semester units of college credit will be given for the program if desired, according to Prof. Ecker, who announced that there is no charge for the workshop.

In addition to lectures and discussions, the program will include group participation projects, panels, consultations, round-table sessions and other activities. Leaders from business, industry, labor, government, agriculture, and education will be brought in as guest speakers for the special sessions.

Senior Breakfast Plans Complete; Rev. Bain To Talk

Plans for the annual Alumni-Senior breakfast have been completed, according to SJS Alumni Office chief, Miss Peggy Major. The breakfast will be held at Lou's Village, 1465 W. San Carlos St., at 10 a.m. Friday, June 8.

All graduating seniors, members of the Alumni Board of Directors, and Dr. James F. Jacobs, senior class adviser, are invited to attend the banquet.

The Metronomes, a campus quartet, will provide the entertainment. Toastmaster for the event will be David A. Heagerty, president of the Alumni Association. Rev. John Bain, director of the Santa Clara County Youth Center, will be the principal speaker.

The purpose of the banquet is to honor the graduating seniors. The menu is topped by Rocky Mountain trout and includes scrambled eggs and hot biscuits.

Baccalaureate, Banquet, Open Houses, Will Highlight Final Senior Activities

The end of four years of studies will end June 8 for 1116 seniors when they receive their degrees in Spartan Stadium. The June '56 class is the largest in the history of the college.

A preview of the graduation, in effect, will take place in the stadium June 3 when the seniors attend Baccalaureate services at 4 p.m.

The senior's parents and friends will hear Rev. John T. Foudy, Ph.D., speak at the service.

Rides Available Now Through Car Pool

The Alpha Phi Omega Car Pool currently is operating in front of Morris Bailey Auditorium for use by persons wanting rides and riders for travel home at the end of finals.

The procedure for the pool is filling out a card at the stand which tells the destination, time of departure and whether the person needs riders or is seeking transportation.

By checking back at the stand contact may be made by phone to someone who is traveling to a certain destination and has filled out a card.

The stand is operated at the end of each semester and at Christmas and Easter vacations by Alpha Phi Omega as a service to SJS students and faculty.

Department To Hold Tryouts For Plays

Tryouts for two summer session productions "Dial 'M' for Murder," by Frederick Knott, and "The Skin of Our Teeth," by Thornton Wilder, will be held in the Studio Theater of the Speech and Drama Building, Monday, June 18 at 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

"Dial 'M' for Murder" is an exciting melodrama that deals with a man who arranges the perfect murder and is trapped into revealing his guilt. This production will be presented July 5, 6 and 7. It will be directed by Miss Elizabeth Loeffler, associate professor of drama.

A Pulitzer Prize winner, "Skin of Our Teeth" is a satiric fantasy concerning the adventures of the Antrobus family through the ages. How they survive a thousand calamities by the skin of their teeth provides the subject matter for this story. The play will run July 19, 20 and 21. Dr. James H. Clancy, professor of drama, will direct the production.

All interested students are invited to try out for these plays. Credit may be taken for appearing in or working on these productions.

Grad Caps, Gowns

Caps and gowns are available to seniors in the Spartan Shop, it was announced today. Seniors ordering personal name cards may pick them up in the Spartan Shop also.

President Asks Congress for Increase In American Atomic Energy Program

WASHINGTON — (UP) — President Eisenhower asked Congress Tuesday to authorize an expansion of the atomic energy program to produce more weapons and also to expand its peaceful uses.

The President estimated the cost at $112,500,000 during the next fiscal year starting July 1. This would increase the Atomic Energy Commission's operating funds for the year to $1,784,500,000.

The White House said the expanded program and new money is needed so the United States can take advantage of "recent technological advances" in the nuclear energy field.

IN CONGRESS:

Invocation and benediction will be offered by the Rev. J. Wesley Farr, minister of the First Methodist church, San Jose.

Following Baccalaureate services, the seniors will attend the Senior Banquet June 7 at 7:15 p.m.

The banquet will be held at the Exposition Hall in the Santa Clara County Fair Grounds.

Dr. Henry Bonner McDaniel, professor of psychology and education at Stanford University, will appear as guest speaker. Dr. McDaniel's speech titled, "They Tell Me" It will be a humorous talk, according to Dr. James F. Jacobs, senior class adviser.

Family Day will take place June 7 also. Seniors and their parents, wives, husbands and other relatives will enjoy an afternoon of activities scheduled by Nancy Costantion, chairman of the occasion.

Guests will meet with instructors in the departments corresponding to the major field of each student at 1 p.m. for an informal open house.

Friday, June 8, the Senior Breakfast will begin at 10 a.m. Fresh brook trout, scrambled eggs, potatoes, hot biscuits, tomato juice and coffee will be the menu for the breakfast.

The breakfast is sponsored by the Alumni association. Site of the meal is Lou's Village. An expected 450 persons will be present.

Crews Make First Foundation Pour

The first cement pour in the foundations of the new classroom building was made Tuesday by the construction crews. An additional pour is scheduled for today or tomorrow, according to George Emery, architectural engineer.

The crews poured 40 yards of cement the first day and the second pour is expected to finish the north wing of the building. Emery also reported that excavation should be completed within three or four days and the complete foundations should be poured within a month.

About four weeks' labor remains on the Men's Gym while the science addition should have most of the work completed by the middle of the summer. About 50 per cent of the interior work is completed in the library wing.

Basketball Coach's Greatest Dream—Six-foot Father Is 'Runt' of Family

OAKLAND, Calif. — (UP) — George Franklin Gibbs could field quite a basketball team without even going outside his own family, if height were the only consideration.

Gibbs, a patrolman with the Transportation Corps Security Patrol at the Oakland Army Terminal, is only six feet tall himself. But his six sons range in height from six-four to six-eleven and three-quarters.

The near seven-footer is Richard Gibbs, a Marine stationed at Quantico, Va. Next tallest is sixteen Robert, also a Marine, based at Treasure Island, Calif.

Joe Gibbs, six-five, is a sailor stationed at San Diego, Calif. Both Norman and Frank Gibbs, who saw military service during World War II, are six-six. The "runt" of the family is John Gibbs, a World War II Army veteran, who stands six-four.

By CLARK BIGGS

One of the most interesting experiments in jazz for a long time is the Contemporary LP's "12-Tone Compositions and Arrangements" by Lyle Murphy. Featuring many of the top West Coast musicians it is considerably different from the usual California jazz.

12 BASIC TONES

We understand Murphy uses the 12 basic tones and then builds his tunes from them in varying ways. This seldom, if ever, is done in this field and is fresh and reassuring.

Of the 10 tunes in the album, six are Murphy originals and the remaining four bear Murphy's original arrangements. "Perdido," "Sophisticated Lady," "Blue Moon" and "These Foolish Things" are the standards the group has used to demonstrate this type of arranging.

Three other exponents of the 12-tone system, Curtis Counce on base, Rus Cleever, alto sax and clarinet; and Buddy Collette, tenor and alto sax, give the system the personal feeling that is needed to put it over.

PREVIN AND MANNE

Andre Previn on piano and Shelly Manne on drums round out the group with enough musical experience and expression to assist the best group.

"Lennie Niehaus and the Octet" is one of the finest LP's to hit the field in the past year. Lennie has been acclaimed by some of the top jazz critics as the best alto saxist since Charlie Parker came into prominence.

Assisting are Bill Holman, tenor; Jimmy Giuffre, baritone sax; Stu Williamson, trumpet; Bob Envaldsen, valve trombone; Pete Jolly, piano; Morny Budwig, bass and Shelly Manne, drums. All are of West Coast fame and have played together previously at the Lighthouse and on other LP's. This gives to the album the rapport which brings it to life.

Supports Senior Day

Dear Thrust and Parry:

I would like to direct this letter to Quinten V. Barbieri. Mr. Barbieri, I was one of those unfortunates who was unable to attend the Senior Day festivities at Adobe Creek Lodge, so in a way, I'm not qualified to answer your gripes. I can tell you this, however; I've talked to many seniors since the Senior Day, and from what I've been able to gather, I missed one heck of a good time.

They enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Many danced, swam, ate, and, in general, managed to keep themselves more than occupied. Because I could not attend to participate in the celebration of my grad class, because I missed the opportunity of socializing with friends I may never see again, I shall always regret not attending.

You did not view the day in the same light. You chose to ruin your day by trying to find all the bad points of the day in relation to the dollars and cents you spent. It must be terrible to think only in terms of economics. I'm sorry you did not receive a return on your investment. As for me, I didn't spend a cent, but I have lost far, far more than you could hope to.

Olympic Team Predictions

Just for kicks, we thought it would be fun to pick the United States Track and Field Olympic team. No doubt many track fans will disagree with our predictions, but nevertheless we feel our guesses are as good as anyone's at this time of the season.

We were unable to rank several events, such as the hop-step-jump and the 5000 meter run, because of insufficient information. We made a guess as to which event several of the competitors were going to compete and gave local men the nod in "toss-up situations."

The men on the following list are not ranked in order of expected finish in the Olympic Trials.

100—King (California), Sime (Duke), Morrow (Abilene Christian).

200—King (California), Sime (Duke), Morrow (Abilene Christian).

400—Mashburn (Oklahoma A&M), Lea (Edwards AFB), Jones (Ft. Meade).

800—Stanley (San Jose State), Whitfield (L.A. State), Sowell (Pittsburg).

1500—Seaman (UCLA), Bowden (California), Tidwell (Emporia).

5K—Davis (SDNTC), Campbell (SDNTC), Calhoun (N. Carolina Coll.).

400M—Atterberry (Compton), Southern (Texas), Culbreath (Pioneer).

High Jump—Dumas (Compton), Shelton (LAAC), Wyatt (SCYC).

Pole Vault—Gutowski (Occidental), Richards (LAAC), Bragg (Villanova).

Broad Jump—Bell (Indiana), Bennett (Ft. MacArthur), Brown (Striders).

Stanley in Compton 880

SJS Star To Meet Top Foes

Lang Stanley will seek to prove his recent demise at the California Relays was a fluke in Friday night's Compton Invitational Meet. One of the best 880 fields of all time has been assembled for the meet, usually one of the top track affairs of the year.

World 800 meter record holder Roger Moens of Belgium, Lon Spurrier, Mal Whitfield, Tom Courtney and Stanley are set to go. There also is a possibility Pittsburgh's Arnie Sowell and UCLA's Bob Seaman may compete in the race.

Stanley offered no excuses for his showing at Modesto in which he ran a "slow" 1:50.2 and was defeated by Seaman and Whitfield on the anchor leg of the Sprint Medley relay.

He said, "It was the worst race I have run this year. I just ran out of gas. I tried to call on my reserve during the last 200 yards, but I didn't have it."

Coach Bud Winter expects Lang to turn in a good top performance. He commented, "Lang has been pointing for this race for the past two weeks, and I expect nobody will be disappointed by him."

The rest of the Spartan team will enter Saturday night's Pacific Association of the AAU track and field meet at Stockton. Winter has entered a full team with pole vaulter O. W. Rhodes expected to be the top State entry.

Rhodes has just been rounding into form and last week cleared 14 ft. 4 in. to put him among the top five West Coast Collegians. Other standouts are expected to be Al Ross, Ed Hieks, Ron Giardina, Lynn Greene and Don Hubbard.

Other entrants are John Ornelaz, Ray Goodwin, Ray Ellis, Van Parish, Kermit Walker, Don Malinoff, Harvey McCullough, Jim Hushaw, Herb Stockman, Art Hiatt, Bob Rush, Quentin Manchester and Wiley Schmidt.

PCC Commissioner Clarifies Rulings

LOS ANGELES.—(UP)—Pacific Coast Conference Commissioner Victor O. Schmidt has clarified the action by UCLA in declaring its football players ineligible and the modification of the ineligibility ruling by the conference.

"The action of UCLA in declaring ineligible all members of the 1955 freshman and varsity squads lies within the prerogatives of the institution," Schmidt said yesterday.

"However," Schmidt added, "The conference, believing this to be too harsh a penalty, reinstated these students to eligibility subject to a penalty of one year of varsity participation in football, in lieu of the penalty of total ineligibility previously imposed by UCLA."

Schmidt said the modification by the conference provides that no student should suffer any penalty if he was not listed on the original records of those who had received the aid.

The conference may assess a lesser penalty if it feels a penalty handed out is too severe, Schmidt said.

Sororities Hold Senior Breakfasts; Plan Last Social Events of Year

ALPHA OMICRON PI
The seniors of Alpha Omicron Pi will be honored at a breakfast to be held Sunday. Active and pledges will gather in the Rose Room at Ricky's for the farewell get-together.

ALPHA PHI
The Alpha Phi held their annual Senior Breakfast on Sunday at Havenly Foods. The graduating members were presented with gifts, and Georgia Clark, past president, received a silver tray. Highlight of the affair was the scholarship award which went to Joby Barry. Each year the award is presented to the girl who has made the biggest improvement in grades.

The Alpha Phi pledges held a dinner for their big sisters at Alum Rock Park Sunday. Everyone played baseball, and tacos made by the pledges, were served.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA
The Kappa Alpha Thetas held their Senior Breakfast Sunday at the San Jose Country Club. The senior history, prophecy and will were read. Virginia Breslin was chairman of the event.

KAPPA DELTA
Mrs. Clarence M. Texdahl, south province president of Kappa Delta was honored guest at the chapter meeting Monday evening.

Kappa Deltas presented flowers to Jo Rae Turner and pledge Marilyn Price. Miss Turner recently was elected to Black Masque honor society, and Miss Price was awarded the Pannellenic scholarship for outstanding work in the Fine Arts Department in the field of music.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA
The Kappa Kappa Gammas will hold their Senior Breakfast Sunday at the San Jose Country Club. Tributes and farewells will be given to the 28 seniors. Mrs. Eugene C. Andres, national past president, will be the guest speaker, Carol Curtice is the chairman.

Patty Smith, Kappa Kappa Gamma president, will be the chapter's official delegate to the national biennial convention to be held at Swampscott, Mass., June 21 to 29. Also representing the chapter will be Margaret Mitchell, Teddy Gehr, Vivienne Andres, Eleanor Rice and Audrey Westfall.

PHI MU
Chateau Boussey was the scene of the Phi Mu's first pledge dance Saturday evening. After dinner each pledge was introduced and given a doll by her big sister. Pink and white carnations decorated the hall, and music was provided by Jim Houston's band.

Sunday morning Phi Mus were breakfast guests at the home of Margaret Chamberlain, faculty adviser, who lives in Los Gatos.

SIGMA KAPPA
Wednesday afternoon the Sigma Kappas and Kappa Taus will hold a swimming-barbecue exchange at Rancho Los Huevas with their alumni.

The Sigma Kappa graduating seniors held a dessert party after the chapter meeting Monday night for the other members of the house. On Sunday morning the juniors held a breakfast in honor of the seniors at Ricky's in Palo Alto.

Lorna Waugh and Shirley Ewen were initiated into the Sigma Kappa active chapter Sunday night at a special initiation ceremony.

P.E. Faculty Women Plan Tea for Grads

The women's physical education faculty will entertain graduating seniors and their parents at a tea Saturday from 2 to 3 p.m.

The dessert and decorations will follow a spring theme, according to Mrs. Lenore Luedemann, department secretary. All graduating physical education or recreation majors are invited to come and bring their parents, added Mrs. Luedemann.

THETA XI

Theta Xi held its annual "Favorite's Dinner" Monday night. The guests of honor were persons who have aided Theta Xi activities during the past year. They were Eleanor Ingalls, Nancy Morrill and Ginny Wall from the Activities Office; Gail Wood, Theta Xi Homecoming Queen candidate; June Bibb, the fraternity's Cinderella Girl; Bobbie D'Amico, Betty Coed candidate; Gayle Gillingham, Blossom Time Girl; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, the fraternity's neighbors.
